Today is Coffee Sunday

Coffee Sunday is hosted by The Friends of Corpus Christi. Please make sure you stop by to share the fellowship of our Parish. While you are there; take a moment to write a letter that will be enclosed in the Cross when our tower is reinstalled. Folks, this is a once in a life opportunity. When the Good Sisters of St. Joseph had the youngsters, from our former school, write the original letters, it was not very well documented. For a while we thought it was just a legend. But this time we have dotted our I's and crossed all of our T's, so one hundred years from now, the construction company, who will be working on the tower will know "we are here!, we are here!"

Food for the Poor

Next Saturday, September 14th, we will host a guest speaker for the Organization Food for the Poor. Father Deibel travels the country to make parishes aware of the plight of the less fortunate.

Visitation of the Provincial

The Provincial of the Pauline Order, here in the United States, Father Nicholas Socha, will be performing a "Canonical Visitation" of the Monastic House in Buffalo. This will take place on September 24th and 25th. This is a special and spiritual time for our Priests.

New Missals

We are considering The Lumen Christi Missal to replace our current missals that have to be shipped several times a year. The Lumen Christi is the flagship series available by the publisher. It has quickly become one of the most viable permanent replacements for disposable missal subscriptions. A dignified and beautiful book for the pew in a hard cover, with two ribbons and is useable for over three years.

It contains Lectionary Readings ABC for Sundays and Feasts, Daily Mass in simple English chant settings for the Entrance, Responsorial Psalm, Alleluia, Offertory and Communion, sung Order of Mass, 18 Mass Ordinaries, Devotions, and more. It is a worship resource with the pastoral needs of the parish in mind. To learn more go to <http://www.illuminarepublications.com/lumen-christi-series/>

Canisius College

The Permanent Chair of Polish Culture at Canisius College invite you to St. Michael's Church, 651 Washington Street, on Monday September 8th, at 7 p.m. for a talk with the author of Anthem of Hope; K.J. Kulinowski. It is historical fiction intertwining the story of a Righteous Gentile from Poland and the Jewish boy she saves. Free & open to the public.

And on September 10th, at 7 p.m. they invite you to St. Gregory the Great Church, in Williamsville to listen to George Weilgel, biographer of St. John Paul II lecture on St. John Paul II: The Road to Canonization. Weigel is a Distinguished Senior Fellow of Washington's Ethics and Public Policy Center and one of the world's leading authorities on the Catholic Church. This lecture is also free and open to the public.

St. John Gualbert

The Ladies Guild and Holy Name Societies are sponsoring their annual Spaghetti and Meatball Dinner on Sunday, September 21st, from 11:30 a.m. to 3:00 p.m. at Gualbert Avenue, near Doat Street in Cheektowaga (school gym). Tickets: $8 for adults, $4 for children 12 and under. Presale only: limited number of tickets at the door. Contact their rectory for more information 892.5746.

St. Stanislaus Health Fair

Catholic Charities of Buffalo will be hosting a Health and Benefits Fair on Thursday, September 25th from 11 a.m. – 2 p.m. at the Stanislaus Office, 128 Wilson Street. There will be vendors offering a wide variety of health related products, services and benefit information. Open to everyone.
