Sanctuary Lamps

Corpus Christi is experiencing a variation in practices. For several years there have been many Mass intention openings, people seem to be requesting more Masses. For years Sanctuary Lamps have always had intentions. This year our Sanctuary Lamps have many open intentions. Please use this opportunity to honor or remember a cherished individual or event. Call the office for openings.

The sanctuary lamp, also called a chancel lamp, is placed before the tabernacle in a Roman Catholic Church as a sign that the Blessed Sacrament is reserved or stored within.

This coming Memorial Day Weekend, SUNDAY, MAY 30, 2021 at 3:00 pm, St. Stanislaus Church in conjunction with St. Stanislaus Cemetery will be holding an outdoor Rosary Procession around the Marian Mausoleum at 3:00 pm. What a fitting way to honor those we have lost. It was Pope John XXIII who said: "The Rosary is a magnificent and universal prayer for the needs of the Church, the nations, and the entire world." The Rosary is often recited at wakes for the sanctification and protection of the souls of the dead. Our deceased need our prays.

The Corpus Christi procession this year will be held on Sunday, June 6. Bishop Fisher has been asked to participate, and we are awaiting a confirmation. In the meantime, an organizational meeting will be held on Thursday, May 27 at 6:30 p.m. at the Kolbe Center at Corpus Christi Church. Those preparing an altar or group leaders participating in the procession should attend.

The gifts of the Holy Spirit

Wisdom is the ability to exercise good judgment. It distinguishes between right and wrong, seeks and upholds truth and justice, and balances personal good with the common good. It is in touch with reality, demonstrates common sense and is prudent. It often increases as a person advances in years and gains life experience. In the Old Testament, wisdom is personified by "Sophia," the mythical mother of faith, hope and love; while in the New Testament, wisdom is personified by Jesus himself.

Understanding is the gift of intelligence and enlightenment. It is the ability to think clearly; to perceive, comprehend and interpret information; and to have insight and discern meaning.

Counsel is good advice. It is the ability to teach, inform, guide, direct, warn, admonish, recommend and encourage. It is not limited to the giving of advice but extends to the ability to graciously receive it. The gift is needed by parents, teachers, coaches, supervisors, mentors, therapists, lawyers, clergy, consultants, elders and spouses — anyone who offers advice to others.

Fortitude is an unwavering commitment to God or a proper course of action, and it shows itself as moral strength, courage, determination, patient endurance, long suffering, a resolute spirit, stamina and resiliency.

Knowledge is the ability to study and learn; to acquire, retain and master facts and information; and to put what is learned to good use for constructive purposes.

Fear of the Lord is awe, reverence and respect for God. It acknowledges that everything comes as a gift from God, downplays personal achievement and self-sufficiency, and gladly offers praise, worship and adoration to God.

Piety is personal holiness, and it includes devotion to God, prayer, virtue, goodness, decency, self-mastery, innocence, the avoidance of sin and obedience to God's will.
