August 14, Feast of Maxillian Kolbe.

St. Maximilian Kolbe was born as Raymund Kolbe on January 8, 1894, in the Kingdom of Poland, part of the Russian Empire. He was a Polish Conventual Franciscan friar and a martyr in the German death Camp of Auschwitz during World War II.

St. Maximilian Kolbe was very active in promoting the Immaculate Virgin Mary and is known as the Apostle of Consecration to Mary. Much of his life was strongly influenced by a vision he had of the Virgin Mary when he was 12.

"That night I asked the Mother of God what was to become of me. Then she came to me holding two crowns, one white, the other red. She asked me if I was willing to accept either of these crowns. The white one meant that I should persevere in purity, and the red that I should become a martyr. I said that I would accept them both."

One year after his vision, Kolbe and his elder brother, Francis joined the Conventual Franciscans. In 1910, Kolbe was given the religious name Maximilian, after being allowed to enter the novitiate, and in 1911, he professed his first vows.

At the age of 21, Kolbe earned a doctorate in philosophy from the Pontifical Gregorian University. He would also earn a doctorate in theology by the time he was 28.

Beatified By: By Pope Paul VI on October 17, 1971.

Canonized By: By Pope John Paul II on October 10, 1982.

REMEMBER Corpus Christi Church in your will. Making out, or updating your will is a good thing to do as things change in our lives more quickly than we realize. Please consider the invitation to remember Corpus Christi Parish in your will. A bequest to the parish will be a strong statement of your appreciation of the ministry of the parish to you and help to continue that ministry to other long after you have "gone home to the Lord."

Sanctuary Lamps

Corpus Christi is experiencing a variation in practices. For several years there have been many Mass intention openings, people seem to be requesting more Masses. For years Sanctuary Lamps have always had intentions. This year our Sanctuary Lamps have many open intentions. Please use this opportunity to honor or remember a cherished individual or event. Call the office for openings.

Corpus Christi's Harvest Festival, which is celebrated on the East Side of the City of Buffalo, is an excellent opportunity for us to express our gratitude to God for all the blessings we receive living in America. This year we will be honoring Mr. Leonard Sikorski and Mr. Henry Bernat. These two parishioners are wonderful examples of hardworking individuals who continue to commit and dedicate their time and talents to the Parish. If you like, you can present special wishes to Leonard and/or Henry in our program. This is also an opportunity to advertise a business or other good & personal message. Booklets will be distributed to individuals as they enter the Church for the Dożynki - Harvest Festival Holy Mass at 5 PM Saturday and 9:30 AM and 11 AM Sunday. Please read and fill out the application below. Thank you for your generosity and your support of our Festival and Parish. The outline below provides detailed information.
