A Lenten Message from Bishop Michael W. Fisher

Together, with Catholics and Christians throughout the world - disciples of Jesus Christ - we begin our Lenten journey toward the fulfillment of God's great love for humanity and our rebirth made possible by the sacrifice of His only Son.

We are called to repent of attitudes and behaviors that lead us away from our true calling as daughters and sons of God, Father of us all. We are invited to empty ourselves of the distractions that crowd out or make difficult to hear in our hearts and minds the subtle promptings of the Holy Spirit. We are challenged not only to put aside cherished habits and preferences, but to adopt new ones that more fully reflect the Lord's command to love one another and to forgive as we have been forgiven.

As we now enter into a spirit of prayer and repentance in anticipation of our celebration of the great Paschal Mystery at Easter, let us be deliberate in these days of preparation, finding new ways to give of ourselves to one another and to the Lord. In quiet reflection, may we discern His voice and allow ourselves to be drawn ever closer to His presence and purposes.

As your brother in the Lord and as your shepherd, I pray that these days of preparation will bring about a true renewal within each of us, even as it invigorates our local Church to more fully reveal the awesome goodness of God and His boundless love for all. In what we say and in what we do, may others likewise be prompted to consider life's greater destiny and draw courage to promote peace and understanding, acceptance and respect for the sacred dignity of each and every person.

Let us not be afraid but, together, let us now journey forward knowing that the Lord will sustain us and bring to fulfillment the good and holy work He has begun!
