From the Diary of St. Maria Faustina Kowalska

#1488 “You see, My child, what you are of yourself. The cause of your falls is that you rely too much upon yourself and too little on Me. But let this not sadden you so much. You are dealing with the God of mercy, which your misery cannot exhaust. Remember, I did not allot only a certain number of pardons.”

“My child, know that the greatest obstacles to holiness are discouragement and an exaggerated anxiety. These will deprive you of the ability to practice virtue. All temptations united together ought not disturb your interior peace, not even momentarily. Sensitiveness and discouragement are the fruits of self-love. You should not become discouraged, but strive to make My love reign in place of your self-love. Have confidence, My child. Do not lose heart in coming for pardon, for I am always ready to forgive you. As often as you beg for it, you glorify My mercy.”

“My child, life on earth is a struggle indeed; a great struggle for My kingdom. But fear not, because you are not alone. I am always supporting you, so lean on Me as you struggle, fearing nothing. Take the vessel of trust and draw from the fountain of life—for yourself, but also for other souls, especially such as are distrustful of My goodness.”

*“Easter is...
 Joining in a birdsong,
 Eying an early sunrise,
 Smelling yellow daffodils,
 Unbolting windows and doors,
 Skipping through meadows,
 Cuddling newborns,
 Hoping, believing,
 Reviving spent life,
 Inhaling fresh air,
 Sprinkling seeds along furrows,
 Tracking in the mud.
 Easter is the soul’s first taste of spring.”*
 Richelle E. Goodrich

Jesus Christ is Risen!

Risen indeed!

“Glory to God! Our glad lips cry;

All praise and worship be

On earth, in heaven, to God most high,

For Christ’s great victory,”

This is a real reason why we give glory to Almighty God on this wonderful day, like the hymn “Morning Purples All The Sky” tells us. God fulfilling his plan of salvation sent his only begotten Son to this earth and made of him the Victim for our sins and not only that, our hearts rejoice when we see him as our Resurrected Lord.

What a most beautiful Day! A most powerful Day! A most enlightening Day! Easter Day! The Day on which Jesus Christ shows that death has no power upon us. The door of darkness is smashed for us. God lives forever and we in him.

In one of the 19th century hymns we sing “Up from the grave he arose; with a mighty triumph o’er his foes; he arose a victor from the dark domain, and he lives forever, with his saints to reign. He arose! He arose! Hallelujah! Christ arose!”

“Alleluia Christ is Risen!” we greet each other on this Day. It is very important to believe and to have hope in what we say. Easter time is not just a time of bunnies or Easter eggs. It is a time to be filled up with power from heaven, time to be fed with the Bread of Life, the time to enliven our hearts, families and parish.

*“That Thou our Paschal Lamb may’st be,
And endless joy begin.*

*Jesus, Deliverer, set us free
From the dread death of sin.”*

Thinking of and doing God’s works is a way in which the words of the hymn

“Morning Purples All The Sky”

will be fulfilled in our parish.

Have a very happy Easter!

Alleluia!

“The great gift of Easter is hope - Christian hope which makes us have that confidence in God, in his ultimate triumph, and in his goodness and love, which nothing can shake.”

Basil Hume

From the Baltimore Catechism...

““What is meant by "the resurrection of the body?"

By "the resurrection of the body" is meant that at the end of the world the bodies of all men will rise from the earth and be united again to their souls, nevermore to be separated”.

Why will the bodies of the just rise?

During their earthly life the bodies of the just were the temples of the Holy Spirit; they were the

W trakcie Wigilii paschalnej kantor śpiewa:

*‘O certe necessarium Adae peccatum
quod Christi morte deletum est!*

O felix culpa,

quae talem ac tantum meruit habere

Redemptorem!”

Co oznacza,

*„O, naprawdę konieczny grzechu Adama,
wymazany przez śmierć Chrystusa!*

O błogosławiona wina,

który zdobył tak wielkiego odkupiciela!”

Śpiewanie na cześć grzechu? Nawet jeśli śmierć Chrystusa zgładziła nasz grzech, czy słuszne jest radowanie się z powodu grzechu? Grzech pierwotny nie był tak naprawdę dobrym ani błogosławionym wydarzeniem. Nie jest też naszą samolubną skłonnością do występków.

A jednak się cieszymy. Bez grzechu, powód przyjścia Chrystusa byłby nieobecny. Dzięki niemu ramiona Chrystusa mogą nas ogarnąć, pocieszyć, rozgrzeszyć i uzdrowić, podtrzymać.

Jesteśmy więc błogosławieni nie do opisania.

Pośrodku nocy Chrystus niesie obietnicę światła i przebaczenia!

O prawdziwie błogosławiona noc, w którym ziemia jest zaślubiona z niebem, a ludzie Bogu, ustyszeliśmy w trakcie proklamacji wielkanocnej.

A nad ranem radośnie śpiewamy,

“Powiedz nam, Maryja,

Gdzieś Pana widziała?

Widziałam Go po męce,

Trzymał chorągiew w ręce. Alleluja!”

Pamiętając, że prawdziwym Zwycięzcą i Królem jest sam Chrystus Jezus, jak przypomina nam hymn przekazany przez Świętosława z Wilkowa w 1365r., chcielibyśmy Wam życzyć Radosnych Świąt Zmartwychwstania Pańskiego i niech jego

Matka zawsze oręduje za nami u tronu

instruments of the good acts by which the souls of the just merited eternal life. Respect should be shown for the bodies of the faithful departed; special burial places should be set aside for them, and their graves should be blessed.

After the resurrection the bodies of the just will be in a glorified state. There will then be no need for food and drink to preserve the body, which will be endowed with qualities it did not possess in this life. The bodies of the just will rise to share forever in the glory of their souls.”
