Morning Offering

O my God, in union with the Immaculate Heart of Mary (here kiss the scapular as a sign of your consecration), I offer Thee the Precious Blood of Jesus from all the altars throughout the world, joining with it the offering of my every thought, word and action of this day. O my Jesus, I desire today to gain every indulgence and merit I can, and I offer them, together with myself, to Mary Immaculate, that she may apply them to the interests of Thy most Sacred Heart.

Precious Blood of Jesus, save us!
Immaculate Heart of Mary, pray for us!
Sacred Heart of Jesus, have mercy on us!

The Brown Scapular

St. John Paul II said of the brown scapular...it is a “sign of continuous protection of the Blessed Virgin, not only along the pathways of this life, but also at the moment of passing into the fullness of eternal glory.”

When Mary appeared to St. Simon Stock in 1251 and gave him the Scapular, she said these words: “Take this Scapular, it shall be a sign of salvation, a protection in danger and a pledge of peace. Whosoever dies wearing this Scapular shall not suffer eternal fire.”

However, people can’t think of the Scapular as an avoid-hell-and-get-into-heaven-free cloth and excuse oneself from living a Christian life. We wear the Scapular to show our devotion to Our Lady and practice this devotion by praying the Rosary daily or the Little Office of the Virgin Mary and observing chastity in one’s state of life. A prayer offered while holding the Scapular is as perfect as a prayer can be. It is especially in time of temptation that we need the powerful intercession of God’s Mother. The evil spirit is utterly powerless when the wearer of a scapular faces temptation, calling upon the Holy Virgin in this silent devotion.
