 as about letting go of everything that isn't you,

July 16, The Feast of Our Lady of Mount Carmel

Sunday always remains the Lord's Day, and the proper liturgy of the day should always be celebrated.

However, because next Sunday falls on the 16th of July, Father Mariusz Dymek, will, after Mass and the recitation of the Divine Mercy Chaplet, distribute and bless or invest those in the Brown Scapular who request to be invested.

"The scapular is a Marian habit or garment. It is both a sign and pledge. A sign of belonging to Mary; a pledge of her motherly protection, not only in this life but after death. As a sign, it is a conventional sign signifying three elements strictly joined: first, belonging to a religious family particularly devoted to Mary, especially dear to Mary, the Carmelite Order; second, consecration to Mary, devotion to and trust in her Immaculate Heart; third, an urge to become like Mary by imitating her virtues, above all her humility, chastity, and spirit of prayer."

Kieran Kavanaugh, Discalced Carmelite

Litany of Trust

Written by the Sisters of Life

From the belief that I have to earn Your love Deliver me, Jesus. (repeat after each line)
 From the fear that I am unlovable, From the false security that I have what it takes,
 From the fear that trusting
 You will leave me more destitute,
 From all suspicion of Your words and promises,
 From the rebellion against childlike dependency on You,
 From refusals and reluctances in accepting Your will,
 From anxiety about the future,
 From resentment or excessive preoccupation with the past,
 From restless self-seeking in the present moment,
 From disbelief in Your love and presence,
 From the fear of being asked to give more than I have,
 From the belief that my life has no meaning or worth,
 From the fear of what love demands,
 From discouragement,
 That You are continually holding me, sustaining me, loving me
Jesus, I trust in You. (repeat after each line) That Your love goes deeper than my sins and failings and transforms me, That not knowing what tomorrow brings is an invitation to lean on You,
 That You are with me in my suffering,
 That my suffering, united to Your own, will bear fruit in this life and the next,
 That You will not leave me orphan, that You are present in Your Church, That Your plan is better than anything else,
 That You always hear me and in Your goodness always respond to me,
 That You give me the grace to accept forgiveness and to forgive others,
 That You give me all the strength I need for what is asked,
 That my life is a gift,
 That you will teach me to trust You,
 That You are my Lord and my God,
 That I am Your beloved one,
Jesus, I trust in You.

Blessing of Vehicles

St Christopher is the patron of all drivers and his memorial occurs on July 25th, so on Sunday 23rd after the Mass and the Chaplet, the blessing of cars will take place at our parking lots.
