

St. John Chrysostom: It is not the man who is responsible for the offerings as they become Christ's Body and Blood; it is Christ Himself who was crucified for us. The standing figure belongs to the priest who speaks these words. The power and the grace belong to God. 'This is My Body,' he says. And these words transform the offerings.

Important Update

Due to new formatting within the Diocesan PDS (contribution) system, we are no longer able to "split checks".

A check may be written out for multiple envelopes for the Sunday/Holy Day collection, but a separate check must be written out for Fuel and Maintenance envelopes. Fuel and Maintenance may be combined in one check.

Your assistance in this matter is GREATLY APPRECIATED!

St. Maximus the Confessor: A soul that is nurtured by hatred toward man cannot be at peace with God, Who has said: If you forgive not men their sins, neither shall your Father forgive your sins (Matt. 6:15). If a man does not want to be reconciled, you must at least guard yourself from hating, praying with a pure heart for him, and speaking no evil of him.

Garden update: Spring is (hopefully) just around the corner; volunteers are needed to help with spring clean-up and planting. Please call the Rectory and leave a message if you are interested in assisting!

From Fr. Cole Webster

As we begin Lent the parishes of St. John Gualbert, St. John Kanty/Adalbert, and St. Stanislaus are getting out of their comfort zones by uniting together in prayer. Soon the parishioners of these parishes will constitute one newly formed body of Christ. The name of the newly formed community will be called St. Stanislaus which will be comprised of the St. Stanislaus worship site, the St. Adalbert worship site, and the St. John Gualbert worship site. As the structure of many of the parishes within our Family of Parishes changes, may we use this Lenten Season as an opportunity for our own spiritual renewal. Say “hello” to someone you don’t know. As you worship in a church that may be unfamiliar to you, remember it is a church precious to others. As we are united by Christ in the Blessed Sacrament, I hope and pray with all my heart that unity becomes evident in Christ’s Body, in all of us, the Church located here in the Greater East Buffalo area.

Join us this Lent for “Forgiven”

From the Augustine Institute, Forgiven: The Transforming Power of Confession, explores the grace and healing offered in Confession and shows how this sacrament of mercy reveals the depth and bounty of God's love. By looking at God's revelation of his mercy in Scripture and making a step-by-step examination of the Rite itself, Forgiven communicates God's invitation to each one of us to come experience his indescribable love in the Sacrament of Reconciliation.

When: Wednesdays, March 26th, April 2nd, & April 9th

6:00 PM start; doors open at 5:30 PM. Each session will last 60-90 minutes and include video and discussion led with Fr. Mariusz Dymek. Sessions are sequential, but you are welcome to attend some or all sessions.

Where: Kolbe Center, across from Corpus Christi Church, on Clark Street. Street and lot parking available.
