

St. Ambrose of Milan: If it is "daily bread," why do you take it once a year? Take daily what is to profit you daily. Live in such a way that you may deserve to receive it daily. He who does not deserve to receive it daily, does not deserve to receive it once a year.

St. Ignatius of Loyola: One of the most admirable effects of Holy Communion is to preserve the soul from sin, and to help those who fall through weakness to rise again. It is much more profitable, then, to approach this divine Sacrament with love, respect, and confidence, than to remain away through an excess of fear and scrupulosity.

There will be one or perhaps two rehearsals the week before the Mass. The organist/choir director is Larry Maguda, who led the choirs at both Saint Adalbert and Saint John Kanty for many years. We hope you will sing with us!
