Mass Intentions

The Mass Intention Book has openings
for the Months of November and December 2025.

No Sundays are available for 2025.

The Mass is the greatest prayer we can offer. St. John Maria Vianney

Sunday, August 3, 2025

*Coffee and Donuts after 9:15 am Mass
at the Kolbe Center!*

TUESDAY, August 5, 2025

ALL Parishioners are invited to the Parish Council meeting
in the Sears Center at 6:30 pm

Pope Paul VI has described the purpose
of a pastoral council
to examine and consider all that relates to pastoral work and to offer practical conclusions on these matters, so that the life and activity of the People of God may be brought into greater conformity with the Gospel.

In this description, we find three tasks
assigned to the pastoral council:
to examine, to consider, and to recommend.

Please join us
at the next pastoral meeting.
Ask the Holy Spirit
if you are being called
to a more active participation
in your Church community!

*If we really understood the Mass,
we would die of joy.*

St. John Maria Vianney

Adoration
Of the Most Holy Sacrament
on the 1st Thursday of the month
between 6 pm and 8:30 pm
in our beautiful historical church.

*The Eucharist is the love of Christ
made visible.*

St. John Maria Vianney

A Prayer for New Vocations
O God, Father of all Mercies,
Provider of a bountiful Harvest,
send Your Graces upon those
You have called to gather the fruits
of Your labor;
preserve and strengthen them in their lifelong service
of you.
Open the hearts of Your children
that they may discern Your Holy Will;
inspire in them a love and desire to surrender themselves
to serving others
in the name of Your son, Jesus Christ.
Teach all Your faithful to follow their respective paths
in life
guided by Your Divine Word and Truth.
Through the intercession of the Most Blessed Virgin Mary,
all the Angels, and Saints,
humbly hear our prayers
and grant Your Church's needs,
through Christ, our Lord.
Amen.

When we have been to Holy Communion, the balm of love envelops the soul as the flower envelops the bee.

Saint John Maria Vianney

Eucharistic Revival
about receiving holy communion

FOR CATHOLICS:

As Catholics, we fully participate in the celebration of the Eucharist when we receive Holy Communion. We are encouraged to receive Communion devoutly and frequently.

In order to be properly disposed to receive Communion, participants should not be conscious of grave sin and normally should have fasted for one hour. A person who is conscious of grave sin is not to receive the Body and Blood of the Lord without prior sacramental confession except for a grave reason where there is no opportunity for confession. In this case, the person is to be mindful of the obligation to make an act of perfect contrition, including the intention of confessing as soon as possible ([Code of Canon Law] canon 916). A frequent reception of the Sacrament of Penance is encouraged for all.

*When Mass is celebrated, the sanctuary is filled with countless angels who adore the divine victim
immolated on the altar.*

St. John Chrysostom

FOR OUR FELLOW CHRISTIANS:

We welcome our fellow Christians to this celebration of the Eucharist as our brothers and sisters. We pray that our common baptism and the action of the Holy Spirit in this Eucharist will draw us closer to one another and begin to dispel the sad divisions which separate us. We pray that these will lessen and finally disappear, in keeping with Christ's prayer for us that they may all be one.

Because Catholics believe that the celebration of the Eucharist is a sign of the reality of the oneness of faith, life, and worship, members of those churches with whom we are not yet fully united are ordinarily not admitted to Holy Communion. Eucharistic sharing in exceptional circumstances by other Christians requires permission according to the directives of the diocesan bishop and the provisions of canon law (canon 844 § 4).

Members of the Orthodox Churches, the Assyrian Church of the East, and the Polish National Catholic Church are urged to respect the discipline of their own churches.

According to Roman Catholic discipline, the Code of Canon Law does not object to the reception of Communion by Christians of these Churches (canon 844 § 3).

*One merits more by devoutly assisting
at a Holy Mass
than by distributing all of his goods to the poor
and traveling all over the world
on pilgrimage.*

From Fr. Cole Webster

We had a beautiful weekend for our Family of Parishes Picnic this past Sunday at Cheektowaga Town Park! It was so nice to see parishioners mingling, relaxing, and enjoying a meal together from every parish in our family. THANK YOU to all who organized, brought food, and attended!

**IMPORTANT FOR ST. JOHN KANTY/ST. ADALBERT PARISHIONERS****

I have recently been made aware of a snafu with our envelope company who has inadvertently not sent out a new batch of envelopes following St. John Kanty's closure. Our sincerest apologies. This has been rectified for the September mailing. In the meantime, please use a regular envelope with your name on it and we will make sure your account and worship site receives credit for your generous support. Thank you for your patience as we work to transition everyone from Kanty/Adalbert, Gualbert, and Stanislaus to new envelopes.

The Pastoral Council of the NEW St. Stanislaus representing the merger of St. Stanislaus, St. John Kanty, St. Adalbert, and St. John Gualbert met for the first time this past Monday for a picnic at the Pitass Center. Each of the four worship sites selected three individuals to serve on the new council; Central Office staff also attended. After a meal and prayer, a summary of all that is going on at each of the worship sites was presented to get everyone on the same page. We look forward to our September meeting so we can head into Fall full steam ahead! A new day here in Greater East Buffalo has officially begun!!

ST. PAUL CENTER FOR BIBLICAL THEOLOGY

Eighteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time (Cycle C)

Trust in God - as the Rock of our salvation, as the Lord who made us His chosen people, as our shepherd and guide. This should be the mark of our following of Jesus.

Like the Israelites we recall in this week's Psalm, we have made an exodus, passing through the waters of Baptism, freeing us from our bondage to sin. We too are on a pilgrimage to a promised homeland, the Lord in our midst, feeding us heavenly bread, giving us living waters to drink (see 1 Corinthians 10:1-4).

We must take care to guard against the folly that befell the Israelites, that led them to quarrel and test God's goodness at Meribah and Massah.

We can harden our hearts in ways more subtle but no less ruinous. We can put our trust in possessions, squabble over earthly inheritances, kid ourselves that what we have we deserve, store up treasures and think they'll afford us security, rest.

All this is "vanity of vanities," a false and deadly way of living, as this week's First Reading tells us.

This is the greed that Jesus warns against in this week's Gospel. The rich man's anxiety and toil expose his lack of faith in God's care and provision. That's why Paul calls greed "idolatry" in the Epistle this week. Mistaking having for being, possession for existence, we forget that God is the giver of all that we have, we exalt the things we can make or buy over our Maker (see Romans 1:25).

Jesus calls the rich man a "fool" - a word used in the Old Testament for someone who rebels against God or has forgotten Him (see Psalm 14:1).

We should treasure most the new life we have been given in Christ and seek what is above, the promised inheritance of heaven. We have to see all things in the light of eternity, mindful that He who gives us the breath of life could at any moment - this night even - demand it back from us.
