Twenty-Fifth Sunday in Ordinary Time

9:15 am For Saving the Lives of
All Spiritually Adopted Children

Exaltation of the Cross

The feast of the Exaltation of the Cross takes place exactly forty days after the feast of the Transfiguration. This day is the culmination of a “spiritual journey” on which Christians are invited to enter into the mystery of the cross and redemption.

The liturgy of this feast day reminds us that the cross is our only way to salvation. There are a few excerpts from the readings that call us to meditate on the sacrifice of Christ on the Cross who gave his life for us and thus became a source of life for each of us.

The cross of Christ contains a deep mystery: it is an instrument of torture and death created by men, and Christ has transfigured it into an instrument of love and life!

Christ gives his life to save us from death and sin. His resurrection, three days later, is the bright sign of his victory and glory: Thus, the Exaltation of the Cross becomes a source of life for us, capable of changing all evil into good.

Invocation of the Glorious Cross

*“O Cross, my refuge,
O Cross, my path and my strength,
O Cross, impregnable standard,
O Cross, invincible weapon.
The Cross repels all evil,
the Cross puts darkness to flight;
through this Cross I will walk the path
that leads to God.
The Cross is my life;
but for you, enemy, it is your death.
May the Cross of our Lord be my nobility,
May His Blood remain in me
the true redemption.
May His Resurrection give me firm faith and certain hope in the resurrection of the just.
And may his glorious Ascension into heaven make me walk every day towards the object of my heavenly desire;
may it pour out the Holy Spirit in our hearts and remit all our past sins to us. Amen.*

From Fr. Cole Webster

As I preached last weekend, there is a silent revival happening among young people ages 18-25. The French Church experienced a 160% increase in adult baptisms since 2015. In the UK Catholicism could soon overtake Anglicanism for the first time since 1527. And some diocese in the US are reporting year-over-year increases of 30-70%. Let us pray that young people here in WNY will answer the Lord's and help them on their faith journey! Inquiry Night below...

INQUIRY NIGHT

- Are you interested in Catholicism?
- Are you married to a Catholic and curious?
- Are your children in Catholic school and you want to learn what they're learning?

Join Fr. Cole for an informal discussion about growing in the Sacramental Life. This is a perfect opportunity to accompany that friend or family member who has never been baptized, received their First Communion, or Confirmation.
