Thank You

Committee members often go above
and beyond to ensure the success of their project.

This thanks goes to each group and
committee that worked before,
during, and after our Dozynki
celebration!

Thank you to the grounds committee
for planting, mowing, weeding,
mulching
and clearing away strewn trash and debris.

You made the outside of our buildings
not only presentable but also beautiful!

Thank you to the cleaning groups
who continue to maintain the interior of the Church and the Sears Social Club.

Many hours of scrubbing,
mopping, washing, sweeping,
vacuuming, sanitizing and dusting
have gone into preparing both buildings for parishioners and visitors.

Thank you to the Dozynki Committee
for all their time, energy, and dedication
in planning and achieving another wonderful celebration of our Polish Fall Harvest Thanksgiving!
Because of all their hard work
and preparation,

many came to enjoy the food, music,
entertainment, games, and raffles.

This celebration of Thanksgiving to God
would not have been possible
without the hearts and hands
of many volunteers.

To one and all who helped in any way,
Thank you and may
God Bless you abundantly!

Catechism on The Relationship between Tradition and Sacred Scripture,
2 sources of one God's revelation.

One common source. . .

80 "Sacred Tradition and Sacred Scripture, then, are bound closely together, and communicate one with the other. For both of them, flowing out from the same divine well-spring, come together in some fashion to form one thing, and move towards the same goal." Each of them makes present and fruitful in the Church the mystery of Christ, who promised to remain with his own "always, to the close of the age".

. . . two distinct modes of transmission

81 "Sacred Scripture is the speech of God as it is put down in writing under the breath of the Holy Spirit." "and [Holy] Tradition transmits in its entirety the Word of God which has been entrusted to the apostles by Christ the Lord and the Holy Spirit. It transmits it to the successors of the apostles so that, enlightened by the Spirit of truth, they may faithfully preserve, expound and spread it abroad by their preaching."

82 As a result the Church, to whom the transmission and interpretation of Revelation is entrusted, "does not derive her certainty about all revealed truths from the holy Scriptures alone. Both Scripture and Tradition must be accepted and honored with equal sentiments of devotion and reverence."
Apostolic Tradition is ecclesial tradition.

83 The Tradition here in question comes from the apostles and hands on what they received from Jesus' teaching and example and what they learned from the Holy Spirit. The first generation of Christians did not yet have a written New Testament, and the New Testament itself demonstrates the process of living Tradition. Tradition is to be distinguished from the various theological, disciplinary, liturgical or devotional traditions, born in the local churches over time. These are the particular forms, adapted to different places and times, in which the great Tradition is expressed. In the light of Tradition, these traditions can be retained, modified or even abandoned under the guidance of the Church's Magisterium.

Bible Class with Father Mark Kreis

If you enjoy delving more deeply into scripture, the words in scripture, and the meaning and context of the wording, join Father Mark

on Wednesday evenings at 6:30 pm
at St. Stanislaus Parish Hall.

Father Mark's lectures are informative and allow you to understand the written Word of God more deeply.

From Fr. Cole Webster

Thank you for your patience St. Stanislaus, St. Adalbert/St. John Kanty, & St. John Gualbert parishioners. October is a big transition month as we get everyone on the same envelope company. The good news is that everyone received envelopes from the same company. The bad news is that our envelopes did not come out redesigned as requested. We are looking to rectify this so that offertory envelopes include the names of our three worship sites. In the meantime, please know your envelope number is what determines where your offertory is credited. Envelope numbers beginning with 1 are credited to our Stans worship site; 2—Gualbert; 3—Adalbert. Please call the office with any questions.

Are YOU....

- Interested in becoming a Catholic?
- An adult who has never been confirmed?
- Interested in a wedding or a convalidation?
- Someone who needs an annulment?

If so, please contact Fr. Cole by calling 716-854-5510 or by email at revcwebster@gmail.com.

An old Irish proverb says, 'It is in the shelter of each other that the people live.' Indeed, we are created to depend upon one another and walk together in suffering. But when family members or friends approach life's end, we may not know how best to 'shelter' them. Here are some concrete ways we can compassionately care for them:
usccb.org/end-of-life-care."

What does it mean to have a Mass “offered” for someone?

At the core of having a Mass offered for someone lies the fundamental belief in the redemptive power of Christ’s sacrifice. The Eucharistic celebration is the unification of the faithful with Christ’s sacrifice on the cross, serving as a spiritual nourishment for all. Having a Mass offered for someone is also a form of intercessory prayer, where the community comes together to lift the intentions and needs of others before the divine presence. It embodies the deep-seated belief in the communion of saints, acknowledging the interconnectedness of the faithful in their shared journey of faith and spiritual growth.

Anyone may request a Mass Intention for:

- a person who is living, in need of healing, birthday remembrance,
- a person who is deceased,
- a special intention appropriate to the celebration of the Eucharist, e.g., World Peace, Vocations, Respect for Life, etc.
