Why We Pray For All Souls

“All who die in God’s grace and friendship, but still imperfectly purified, are indeed assured of their eternal salvation; but after they undergo purification, so as to achieve the holiness necessary to enter the joy of heaven.” CCC 1030

The Catholic Church encourages praying for the souls in purgatory to help shorten their time of purification.

At the EWTN’s website we read:

What is a plenary indulgence?

A plenary indulgence is a grace granted by the Catholic Church through the merits of Jesus Christ to remove the temporal punishment due to sin. It is not a forgiveness of sin but the remission of punishment for sins already forgiven. It may apply either to oneself or to souls already in purgatory. In order to obtain a plenary indulgence the faithful must in addition to being in the state of grace, both have the interior disposition of complete detachment from sin (even venial sin), have sacramentally confessed their sins (if not in the stage of grace) and received the Eucharist (either within or outside of Mass), and must pray for the intentions of the Holy Father and visit a cemetery between Nov 1-8.

What about the All Saints’ octave?

The Vatican’s Apostolic Penitentiary, in its “Enchiridion Indulgentiarum” (“Handbook of Indulgences”), states that the faithful can obtain a plenary indulgence for the faithful departed “every day, from the 1st to the 8th of November,” if, in addition to fulfilling the normal terms of a plenary indulgence, one “devoutly visit[s] a cemetery and at least mentally pray[s] for the dead.”

The conditions for a plenary indulgence can be fulfilled a few days before or after performing the works to gain the indulgence, but it is appropriate that Communion and the prayer take place on the same day that the work is completed.

The root of All Saints’ Day dates back to the fourth century when the early Church moved away from commemorating individual martyrs on their day of martyrdom and established a common celebration of all martyrs, and eventually all saints.

From Fr. Cole Webster

I cannot thank everyone enough for your participation in this year's in our Triduum in honor of St. John Paul II at St. Stanislaus Church / Diocesan Shrine of St. John Paul II. A very special thank you to our volunteers who worked so hard preparing snacks and meals Friday, Saturday, and Sunday. On Friday we had an hour of Adoration & Confessions followed by the celebration of the Anointing of the Sick. On Saturday we welcomed the John Paul II Schola Cantorum who sang at our Vigil Mass. Then this past Sunday, Brittany Mruczak sang at the 12:00 Noon Mass. After all Masses, everyone was invited to venerate the relic of St. John Paul II.
