As a sacramental, the brown scapular confers extra grace and disposes us to cooperate with it.

The Blessed Virgin Mary promises special protection in life and death.

Final perseverance at the hour of death.

Assistance after death and an early release from Purgatory (also called the Sabbatine Privilege).

What is the Sabbatine Privilege?

In 1322, a papal bull titled Sacratissimo uti culmine was attributed to Pope John XXII. The Bull records a Marian apparition to the Pope with a description of how and when the Blessed Mother would free those who wear the brown scapular from Purgatory: I, the Mother of Grace, shall descend on the Saturday after their death and whomsoever I shall find in purgatory I shall free so that I may lead them to the holy mountain of life everlasting.

This swift rescue from Purgatory is known as the Sabbatine Privilege, named for the day of the week in which it is said to take place (the Jewish Sabbath).

Whether or not Pope John XXII was the authentic author of the Bull is debated by Church scholars. In light of this controversy, the Holy Office released a decree in 1613 clarifying what the Carmelites should preach about its contents.

The decree states that those practicing this devotion, may derive after death – especially on Saturdays, the day consecrated by the Church to the Blessed Virgin – through the unceasing intercession of Mary, her pious petitions, her merits, and her special protection.

What are the Promises of the Brown Scapular?

Many scapulars are embroidered with the original promise of the Holy Virgin to St. Simon Stock:

Whosoever dies clothed with this scapular shall not suffer eternal fire. While this is the most well-known promise associated with the brown scapular, it is not the only benefit of devotion! Here are all the privileges connected to the scapular devotion.

What are the requirements/conditions to receive the promises of the brown scapular?

Our Lady assigned certain conditions to her promises regarding the brown scapular devotion.
Wear brown scapular continuously.
Live a life of charity.
Observe chastity according to your state in life.

One of the following:

Recite daily the Little Office of the Blessed Virgin Mary or the Divine Office.
Abstain from meat on Wednesdays and Saturdays (an exception is made for Christmas) in addition to the fast days prescribed by the Church.
With the permission of a priest,
say five decades of the Most Holy Rosary.
With the permission of a priest,
substitute some other good work.

A sincere thank you to all who contributed towards the $11,234.66 due by August 31, 2026.
To date $11,234.66 for Diocesan expenses minus $884.66 donated already equals $10,350 still needed. The $10,350 divided by 7 Sundays remaining before August 31 equals $1480 needed weekly (in addition to monies needed to pay additional Church expenses and salaries).

Five First Saturdays dates:

May 2, June 6, July 4,
 August 1, September 5, October 3
Begin in May or June to complete the 5 consecutive Saturdays in September or October respectively

Even if not completing this specific devotion, all are welcome to come for Mass, confession (9:30 - 10:30 AM), or to spend time in Adoration!

Five First Saturdays Devotion opportunity!

This devotion is one of the principal messages of Our Lady of Fatima and directs that for five consecutive first Saturdays, one receives the Blessed Sacrament, goes to confession, prays five decades of the Rosary and meditates for an additional 15 minutes on the mysteries of Rosary with the intention of making reparation to the Immaculate Heart of Mary and with the promise of her assistance at our hour of death.

We are blessed in the Greater East Buffalo Family of Parishes to have First Saturday Mass at Corpus Christi every month at 8:45 AM in the Convent Chapel. During the months of May through October this year, we will also have Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament following Mass with Benediction at 11:00 AM. The Rosary will be prayed and confession will be available.

Please consider participating in this beautiful opportunity to answer Our Lady's request and complete the Five First Saturdays Devotion! You do not need to stay for the whole morning and there is some latitude in how the requirements can be fulfilled.

Saint Mary Magdalene

1ST CENTURY
 FEAST DAY: JULY 22

Mary, from Magdala in Galilee, was a disciple of Jesus who used her resources, or wealth, to help support him and his followers. The Gospel of Luke identifies Mary as the woman from whom Jesus cast out seven demons. The Gospels record that she was present at his crucifixion and burial. In all four Gospels, Mary was the first witness to the Resurrection and carried that news to the others. Because of this, St. Augustine called her "apostola apostolorum," the apostle to the apostles. On June 3, 2016, Pope Francis raised her liturgical observance from a memorial to a feast—the same rank as the observances accorded to the apostles.

Seven Considerations While Navigating Infertility

Read the full version at respectlifeprogram.org/navigating-infertility.

We often assume parenthood happens easily after "I do," but for many married couples, it does not. For some, the joy of conception never happens. Others suffer repeated miscarriages. Still others experience secondary infertility: after giving birth to one or more children, they are unable to have another. If you experience difficulty bringing a child into your family, know that God is with you, and that He has a beautiful plan for your life as a married couple.

God is with you, and His Church desires to walk with you.

You are not alone; His Church desires to walk with you. The full article at the website listed above contains compassionate, practical guidance, intended primarily for married couples struggling with infertility, though others may also find it to be informative.

ST. PAUL CENTER FOR BIBLICAL THEOLOGY

By Dr. Scott Hahn

The Word's Return

Today's readings, like last week's, ask us to meditate on Israel's response to God's Word—and our own. Why do some hear the word of the kingdom, yet fail to accept it as a call to conversion and faith in Jesus? That question underlies today's Gospel, especially.

Again we see, as we did last week, that the kingdom's mysteries are unfolded to those who open their hearts, making of them a rich soil in which the Word can grow and bear fruit. As we sing in today's Psalm, in Jesus, God's Word has visited our land, to water the stony earth of our hearts with the living waters of the Spirit (see John 7:38; Revelation 22:1).

The first fruit of the Word is the Spirit of love and adoption poured into our hearts in baptism, making us children of God, as Paul reminds us in today's Epistle (see Romans 5:5; 8:15-16). In this, we are made a "new creation" (see 2 Corinthians 5:17), the first fruits of a new heaven and a new earth (see 2 Peter 3:13).

Since the first humans rejected God's Word, creation has been enslaved to futility (see Genesis 3:17-19; 5:29). But God's Word does not go forth only to return to Him void, as we hear in today's First Reading. His Word awaits our response. We must show ourselves to be children of that Word. We must allow that Word to accomplish God's will in our lives. As Jesus warns today, we must take care lest the devil steal it away or lest it be choked by worldly concerns.

In the Eucharist, the Word gives Himself to us as bread to eat. He does so that we might be made fertile, yielding fruits of holiness.

And we await the crowning of the year, the great harvest of the Lord's Day (see Mark 4:29; 2 Peter 3:10; Revelation 1:10)—when His Word will have achieved the end for which it was sent.
